

DOXOLOGY

Praising God Through Song

Youth Choir - DOXOLOGY - a place to belong and serve. This group of 7th - 12th graders is congenial, supportive, and eager to bring in new members, directed by Raphael Bundage, and practicing on Wednesdays in the Cheek House Living Room from 6-6:30 PM. In addition to singing monthly in worship, Doxology provides music notes for the Easter Sunrise Service, Christmas Eve Services, as well as other non-FPC services, such as The Blakeford and the Downtown Presbyterian Church. Trips and Progressive Dinners are also part of their activities. For questions, call Raphael Bundage at 298-9540. This year, the production of "Godspell" will be presented Nov. 16-18. Daphne Garey may be contacted for details at 298-9517.

If you have any questions about DOXOLOGY, please contact Daphne Garey at 298-9517.

Come Join Us!

Please take a moment to answer the questions below, whether you plan to be in DOXOLOGY or not. Thanks!

Do you have any musical training? _____
 If "yes", on what instrument(s)? _____

Do you like to sing? _____ Explain: _____

Have you ever been in a chorus? _____ If "yes", which one(s)? _____

Have you ever been in a hand bell choir? _____ If "yes", which one(s)? _____

Can you read music? _____

Do you know your voice part? (soprano, alto, tenor, bass, etc.) _____

Name: _____ Grade: _____ Home phone: _____

Email address: _____

9/07 Please return to: Ellie Billington in the Youth Department ASAP! Thanks!